

PUSA – Perrysburg Utd Soccer Academy

P.U.S.A. is a non-profit organization affiliated PSC and a League member of Ohio Youth Soccer Association North. PUSA is a family oriented soccer league for boys and girls ages 3-9, emphasizing in development in a fun and a positive atmosphere. PUSA exists to serve recreational and accelerated soccer players in his or her quest for individual development. Our programs ensures that all children, no matter what level of competitiveness, will find a fun, educational and safe soccer experience through the development of individual talents, via individual and small group training that is paramount to success in team play. Our licensed, experienced coaching staff will make each child's experience competitive and enjoyable. Our curriculum has helped guide players to become confident, well rounded individuals.

Philosophy

Provide a quality soccer experience for players of all levels from recreation to travel. With sound technical and tactical training, players can develop the skills and instincts necessary to play an attractive attacking style of soccer.

Our Staff

Believes in teaching, assisting in the sport of soccer with core values that encompass learning, discovery, freedom and individual opportunity.

Director- Ian Graham & Our Staff

Our age group coaches are UK International Soccer coaches from England and will again be teaching our unique curriculum, along with other local soccer coaches with years of coaching and playing experience.

The Fall Season runs Sept 12th - Oct 10th. Practices will be once per week at Route 199 Soccer Complex on Schieder Rd. Games are played on Saturday mornings at 9 am beginning Sept 17th.
